

Food Stall Call Out

We are looking for a range of local caterers to run food stalls at Housemates Festival in Autumn 2024! If you are based in Lambeth and want to get involved, please read the below info and fill out the form below.

Applications close at 10am, Friday 6 September 2024.

Please note, Brixton House Kitchen is accessible for preparation and storage only.

Brixton House want to showcase local catering businesses and support local enterprise. This year, we can offer free food stall space for up to three caterers to run food stalls during Housemates Festival, our annual festival of new storytelling featuring dance, comedy and theatre. Exploring themes of migration, queerness, Black love and more, this year's Housemates has something for everyone and is the place to be for new work. To find out more about the Housemates food stall application process, please read on.
